1355 West 3100 South
801-965-5100
www.culturalcelebration.org

WHO: EVERYONE is invited to the Intermountain Society of Artists opening reception and exhibit free of charge. Entertainment and light refreshments will be served.

WHY: This year the Intermountain Society of Artists will present two shows in one setting: the members of the merit group with their own set of ribbons and awards, and the general members of the Intermountain Society of Artists who have not yet met the requirements of those in the merit category.

The Intermountain Society of Artists is a Utah non-profit corporation that was founded on April 9, 1969. They provide an environment for artists that inspires, challenges, educates, encourages and assists them in the creation, enjoyment and sharing of art in the intermountain area. The Intermountain Society of Artists meets on the second Tuesday of each month at Sons of the Utah Pioneers Building, 3301 Louise Avenue, Salt Lake City, at 7:00 p.m.
